

Community suggestions received in response to the additional crossing of the Clarence River postal survey feedback.

The December 2010 community update displayed options that were a combination of the preliminary route options publicly displayed in February 2010 and options proposed by the community following this display. The additional community suggestions received following the postal feedback survey have not been assessed by the RTA.